

Cole Wrampelmeier

5415 Connecticut Ave NW #329 Washington, D.C. 20015
wrampelc@gmail.com | (806) 681-4481

Education

American University, Washington DC

Master of Arts: Game Design | May 2017 Candidate

Carleton College, Northfield MN

Bachelor of Arts: Political Science | June 2011

Senior Thesis Distinction Candidate:

"The Internet is an Inside Joke: An Analysis of Online Activism"

Work Experience

American University, Information Services & A/V Coordinator

June 2013 - Present

- Supervise student staff, including work schedules, new staff hiring, staff training, and Federal Work Study budget
- Develop training and informational materials for professional and student staff in office policies, procedures, technical manuals, software training, and general information dissemination
- Higher level management of FourWinds digital marketing material including hardware management, software upgrades, new staff training and material costs
- Assist with development of new and established systems and procedures associated with university information services.
- Oversee large-scale activities, budget requests, and event approvals for portfolio of student organizations
- Advise and consult with student leaders, group advisors, and University Center clients regarding event logistics in large scale multipurpose event spaces
- Design & create PR materials for student staff hiring and office advertisement
- Content management of departmental website through CMS design platform
- Assist with building and event coverage for late night and weekend events
- Manage scheduling using R25/25Live and operations of information tabling in the University Center
- Use Photoshop to create building maps and signage as well as internal creative design documents to assist with conceptualization of future projects

American University, Staff Assistant for Student Activities & Information Services 2013

September 2012 - June

- Supervisor for the student-staffed information desk in the University Center
- Ensure student workers are prepared and equipped for events in the University Center
- Assist with event management, including event planning, setup, and breakdown in the University Center
- Distribute and manage digital marketing material on University digital displays using FourWinds content management system
- Troubleshoot campus-wide for digital signage hardware, partner with IT department to track issues

Technology and Gaming Labs, Game Design Instructor

November 2014 - June 2015

- Develop curricula for at-risk middle school students enrolled in two separate after school programs using new child friendly game engines
- Troubleshoot hardware and network issues for member schools
- Teach computer skills, basics of software structure, and basic game design techniques with focus on rapid prototyping for a satisfying learning experience

Americorps State & National: Green Iowa, Project Coordinator

October 2011- August 2012

- Manage projects for nonprofit Americorps group improving the energy efficiency of homes in Linn County partnering with local businesses, nonprofits, and municipal offices
- Manage events for fundraising, education, public service, and trainings.
- Work in a variety of roles for events including coordinator, waste management supervisor, public presenter, web marketer
- Work with municipal waste management to educate area elementary school classes on city-wide disposal

Relevant Experience

- ACUI 2015 Region 7 Conference Presenter, "Dragging Your Event Kicking & Screaming"
- Game Developer's Conference 2015: Gold Winner Narrative Review, "Spec Ops: The Line"
- American University Staff Council (2015-2017) Executive Board Member: Secretary